

Snapshots of the 2016 Reunion by Bob Adams.

Alan Strachan, gave an illustrated talk, which he said might be controversial, entitled “Was it HMS Ajax’s Prowess, Sea Power Projection or Propaganda that Enshrined Her Celebrity Status in British and Worldwide Public Consciousness 1939 to 1949?”

Ben and Kate Harwood were the first to get their Spirits Up, followed by another 60, some of whom I shot but haven't named. Two other Reunions were going on and it would not be surprising if you spotted an enterprising interloper from another ship among the guests lining up for a Rum ration. I hope Ted Wicks bottom right next to Foyer picture “Ajax at Crete” got his tot.
